ST. JOHN'S EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

BERRYSBURG, PA | MARCH 2024

Letter from the Pastor

Dear Friends in Jesus,

At the end of this month, earlier than is often the case, we come again to our observance of Palm/Passion Sunday and the "Three Days" or "Triduum" – the ancient title for the period that begins on Maundy Thursday evening and ends on Easter Sunday evening. Our schedule of worship and related activities will be as follows:

- Sunday of the Passion/Palm Sunday, March 24:

At 9:00am, we will proceed with our normal in-person Faith Formation activities. At 10:15am, we will likewise join in our familiar hybrid worship, handing out our beautiful Equal Exchange palms to those present in-person (and having them available for a day or two beforehand for picking up here at the church for those who will be Zoom-ing that morning). Our worship will begin with the Liturgy of the Palms and we will again enjoy Vincent Lamenza's reading of The Passion of Jesus (this year According to St. Mark) as the center point of our worship.

- Maundy Thursday, March 28:

At 7:00 P.M., we will gather for a hybrid Liturgy of Holy Communion, sharing in the mystery and the meaning of that Upper Room – the body and the blood given for us – the betrayal and desertion of our Lord. Reflecting that betrayal and desertion, our worship will end with the solemn stripping of the altar by members of altar guild as the our choir intones the haunting words of Psalm 22.

- Good Friday, March 29:

At 7:00 P.M., we will gather for a hybrid Liturgy of Good Friday – a dark and solemn, and yet hopeful, time when we hear again of the extent of Jesus' great love and sacrifice for you and me. Members of Youth Group and Pastor Tom will again lead us in our worship.

- Holy Saturday, March 30:

At 9:00 A.M., members of Youth Group will set up for our annual Easter Egg Hunt, with the hunt getting underway at 10:00 A.M. for children in four age groups: preschool, grades K-1, grades 2-3, and grades 4-5. At 7:00 P.M., we will continue our worship downstairs with a Liturgy of Readings and Prayer (which will not be available on Zoom) with the much smaller and quieter and darker setting of our downstairs chapel. This liturgy, a part of the ancient liturgy of Easter Vigil, features a series of lengthy readings from the Old Testament, telling of the creative and saving actions of God, beginning with Genesis 1, that point the way to the ultimate creative and saving action of Easter. There will be no music and no offering – only my reading by the light of a single candle, silence for meditation, and prayer.

- The Resurrection of Our Lord, Easter Day, March 31:

We will once again gather in-person for a brief time of Sunrise Worship at 6:30am in the field across from the pavilion, next to the sexton house (or under the pavilion roof in case of inclement weather). At 9:00am, we will again proceed with our normal Faith Formation activities. And at 10:15am, we will likewise join in our familiar hybrid worship, as we celebrate the Good News that Jesus is Risen!

I will look forward to being in worship with YOU, my sisters and brothers in this wonderful congregational family that is St. John, in this most Holy of times. Please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions or ideas!

Pastor Tom

It's going to be an awesome month! I hope your Lenten journeys throughout the month bring you closer to God as we prepare our hearts for the Good News of Easter! Jesus Lives!!!

Lent Worship Opportunities

There is still time on the remaining Wednesday evenings in Lent to join our neighboring Lutheran, United Church of Christ, and United Methodist congregations for worship and a light supper. The supper, consisting of simple items like soup and sandwiches, begins at 6:15 P.M. Following supper, at 7:00 P.M., we join in worship. Worship ends before 8:00 P.M. Once again this year, the host pastor of each congregation is leading the worship, while the pastors each take turns preaching in a congregation other than their own. Our theme for this year's Lenten series is Mountains of Faith, during which each week we consider a different mountain (or mount) where God interacts in powerful ways with people in the Bible. The details for these remaining Wednesday evenings are as follows:

Date	Host Congregation	Preacher/Mount
March 6	Salem United Church of Christ Elizabethville	Pastor Tom Mount Carmel (Where Elijah Calls for Faith and Faithfulness)
March 13	Trinity United Methodist Church Elizabethville	Pastor Su Rider Mount of Beatitudes (Where Jesus Assures Us We Too are Children of God)
March 20	Salem Lutheran Church Elizabethville	Pastor Bill Romberger Mount Calvary (To View God's Own Sacrifice)

Please don't miss these opportunities to have your faith refreshed and deepened, as we journey together through the Season of Lent.

Annual Strawberry Festival

The first planning meeting for our Annual Strawberry Festival will be held on Monday, March 11, beginning at 7:00 P.M. Since there really isn't a fixed committee and the meeting is literally made up of those interested persons who show up each time, all interested persons are (really!) invited to attend. (Please don't forget that the Festival itself is planned for Wednesday, June 12.)

Thank you to Fay Nichols for submitting the following item about wisdom at any age:

I asked a friend who has crossed 70 and is heading towards 80 what sort of changes he is feeling in himself? He sent me the following:

1. After loving my parents, my siblings, my spouse, my children and my friends, I have now started loving myself.
2. I have realized that I am not "Atlas". The world does not rest on my shoulders.
3. I have stopped bargaining with vegetable and fruit vendors. A few pennies more is not going to break me, but it might help the poor fellow save for his daughter's school fees.
4. I leave my waitress a big tip. The extra money might bring a smile to her face. She is toiling much harder for a living than I am.
5. I stopped telling the elderly that they've told that story many times. The story makes them walk down memory lane and relive their past.
6. I have learned not to correct people even when I know they are wrong. The onus of making everyone perfect is not on me. Peace is more precious than perfection.
7. I give compliments freely and generously. Compliments are a mood enhancer not only for the recipient, but also for me. And a small tip for the recipient of a compliment, never, NEVER turn it down, just say "Thank You."
8. I have learned not to bother about a crease or a spot on my shirt. Personality speaks louder than appearances.
9. I walk away from people who don't value me. They might not know my worth, but I do.
10. I remain cool when someone plays dirty to outrun me in the rat race. I am not a rat and neither am I in any race.
11. I am learning not to be embarrassed by my emotions. It's my emotions that make me human.
12. I have learned that it's better to drop the ego than to break a relationship. My ego will keep me aloof, whereas with relationships, I will never be alone.
13. I have learned to live each day as if it's the last. After all, it might be the last.
14. I am doing what makes me happy. I am responsible for my happiness, and I owe it to myself. Happiness is a choice. You can be happy at any time, just choose to be!

I decided to share this with all my friends. Why don't have to wait to be 60 or 70 or 80, why can't we practice this at any stage and age?

Looking Ahead to Upcoming Dates

Looking ahead to the warmer days of summer, some other dates for your family calendars, in addition to the date of our Annual Strawberry Festival, mentioned earlier:

- May 26 – the first Sunday of early summer (9:30am) worship
- June 9 – the first Sunday of outdoor worship in our beautiful pavilion, on our expanded outdoor schedule
- Date TBD – the Lykens Valley Bluegrass Band will again be joining us for worship
- Monday, July 15, through Friday, July 19, Vacation Bible School, with the closing program on Sunday, July 21, followed by “Voices and Vittles”

Creation Care Team

Creation Care Team has met twice and decided on a few initial projects, including renewed/improved recycling at church and during the strawberry festival, and educational and worship projects. Everyone is invited to share ideas and resources at our next meeting Sunday, March 17, 4:00 pm - in person and with a Zoom option. If you have questions - or can't make it but have ideas to share -- please talk with Christie Kahler or Ann Bruner.

Church Camp

Now is the time to be planning how you might take advantage of summer church camping opportunities of all kinds which are available for people of all ages at Kirchenwald, Nawakwa, and Mt. Luther. Please contact our congregational Camperson, Amy Gehring, if you would like to learn more, and please bear in mind that, for active members of St. John, camping scholarships are provided by our congregational family, making any week-long experience a great value as well as a life-changing experience. Special discounts are also available for those who register by the beginning of April!
